

October 22, 2008

EOTAC Team Elite Takes Three Titles In IDPA National Championships

Madison, North Carolina - Allentown, Pennsylvania hosted the annual IDPA National Championship on October 1 - 4, 2008. The championship had 17 exciting stages where over 300 competitors put at least 62,252 rounds downrange during the matches. EOTAC Team Elite fielded six participants and brought home three titles.

Bob Vogel was awarded overall Champion of the Enhanced Service Pistol Division as well and won the High Law Enforcement class title. Dave Harrington won the High Military Veteran class title and placed forth in the Enhanced Service Pistol Division. Other member placements were Massad Ayoob with a third place in Stock Service Revolver Master Class, Tom Yost finished third in the Stock Service Pistol Master Class, and Tammy Sharp finished seventh in the Enhanced Service Pistol Sharpshooter Class.

For additional information about EOTAC's shooting team, contact Fernando Coelho at Fernando@eotac.com or by calling 803.744.9930. Images of EOTAC Team Elite can be viewed on www.eotac.com

About EOTAC LLC

EOTAC taps decades of real world military, law enforcement, and private sector experience to produce the highest quality tactical and discreet garments available to operators today. Offering both traditional and next generation tactical clothing, EOTAC designs innovate without sacrificing utility or comfort. Leveraging outdoor industry experience and end user feedback, EOTAC continually refines the capabilities of its product line maintaining a high level of excellence in every garment offered.

Media Contact:

Linda Powell or Eddie Stevenson (800) 537-2278 (Press only)